"With Jesus we love, grow and succeed"

It was so good to welcome our newest pupils to Nursey this week, they have been amazing! Second week completed in a flash for the rest and the great thing is the children are back to their industrious best. We are expecting a visit very soon from our colleagues at Ofsted and we are ready to welcome them to our great school. Obviously, when our visitors arrive they will wish to speak to parents, please do avail of this opportunity. Should you have a concern, please allow me to hear of it and possibly rectify. Sporting clubs are back and were all over subscribed (except Gaelic football- I don't take it personally)– we are looking at improvements in club allocation and design after Half Term. Please continue to park sensibly and only park in the disabled bays (there are two) if you have a blue badge. Whole school MASS on Wednesday at 9.30 am– come along and see how brilliant and prayerful we are in church. Our Harvest Festival begins in a few weeks whereby we will be supporting Carriers of Hope. Full list of cultural foods required will be shared when received from the charity but if you are shopping over the weekend you may consider buying an extra item for donation. As for COVID– we all know what to do but please keep symptomatic children at home and test. Go Raibh Maith Agat (Thank you—in Irish)

Multicultural Mass

On Sunday 19th September at 10.30 am, St Patrick's church are celebrating a Multicultural Mass, whereby all participants are invited to wear their nations costumes and children invited to attend with their country flag and research key facts about their heritage. This should be a wonderfully joyous occasion and filled with God's positivity.

Our Virtues

This half term the children and staff will have as their focus becoming Eloquent and Truthful. We will hope to develop eloquence in their language so they can understand and articulate their emotions, beliefs and questions. This will help us all to be truthful in the way we represent ourselves and speak about the world.

SSO

I am delighted to say (again) that a new SSO has been appointed. Mr Mee will be beginning in a few weeks time and I know you will join with me in thanking all staff for 'Keeping Calm and Carrying On' so well over the last 6 months in the absence of an SSO. We warmly welcome, and can't wait to introduce you all to, Mr Mee.
